

Department of Criminal Justice Training Promotes New Supervisors

John Schwartz

Two DOCJT employees recently were promoted to new supervisory positions.

John Schwartz was promoted to DUI Enforcement Section Supervisor following the passing of former supervisor Scottie Saltsman. Schwartz is a nine year veteran of DOCJT. He began in 2005 as a homeland security assessor for the Kentucky Community Preparedness Program. Before his promotion he was serving as an instructor in the Investigations Section of Advanced Individual Training.

Schwartz spent 20 years with the New York City Police Department, where he served in patrol, plainclothes, robbery, general assignments and homicide before he retired in 2004. He will complete his bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice Administration in 2014 and continue then into the master's program.

John can be contacted at (859) 622-6864 or at JohnC.Schwartz@ky.gov.

Brandi Robinson

Brandi Robinson was promoted to Record and Registration Section Supervisor following the retirement of Susan Higgins. She has served DOCJT for five years as an administrative specialist in the Supply Section.

Prior to coming to DOCJT, Robinson worked at the University of Alaska Anchorage. She served in a variety of positions, including head women's basketball coach, assistant women's basketball coach, office manager and travel coordinator. Robinson holds a bachelor's degree in Secondary Mathematics Education.

Brandi can be reached at (859) 622-5055 or at BrandiJ.Robinson@ky.gov.
